

JPACTe Rubric (Voices from the Field)

Author number:			Date reviewed:
Dimension	Not appropriate for the Journal	Major Revisions	Minor Revisions	Publishable
CONTENT	The submission does not exemplify the spirit of constructivism from the perspective of the editorial board and/or the peer review committee. The content is not well suited for the readership	The submission touches upon aspects of constructivism from the perspective of the editorial board and/or the peer review committee but is in need of philosophical revision.	The submission touches upon aspects of constructivism from the perspective of the editorial board and/or the peer review committee but is in need clarification of some of the ideas presented.	The submission aligns well with constructivism from the perspective of the editorial board and/or the peer review committee.
DEVELOPMENT	The focus is not clearly defined or developed. The manner in which ideas have been presented is not well suited for the readership.	Ideas are loosely presented. The focus, although presented, is not well developed.	The submission is detailed and provides in-depth coverage of the content. Minor revision to presentation of material is necessary.	The response is thoroughly developed and insightful providing convincing details, examples, references and supportive statements as needed.
FORMAT	Errors in mechanics make the submission very difficult to read. and/or Presentation of submission is not in accordance with APA style and/or an appropriate format for the nature of the piece.	Errors in mechanics make the submission very difficult to read. and/or Presentation of paper is in accordance with APA style and/or the appropriate format; however, there are frequent errors in form.	Only minor errors in mechanics. and/or Presentation of paper is in accordance with APA style and/or the appropriate format. There are minor errors in form.	No mechanical errors. and Presentation of paper is in accordance with APA style and/or the appropriate format for the nature of the piece.
PRACTICALITY	The subject and approach of the submission is singular in nature and cannot be easily applied to other school settings. and/or The topic is not easily user-friendly in terms of subject and approach.	As written, the subject and approach of the submission cannot be easily related or applied to other school settings. and/or With major revision, the topic has the potential to be user-friendly in terms of subject and approach.	Minor revisions in explanation of the subject and/or approach of the submission will help with application to other school settings. and/or With minor revision, the topic can be made user-friendly in terms of subject and approach.	The subject and approach of the submission allows easy application and relation to other school settings. and The topic is user-friendly in terms of subject and approach.
REFERENCE TO STANDARDS	For a submission regarding instructional practices, there is no reference to state or national learning standards.	For a submission regarding instructional practices, there is little or no significant reference to state or national learning standards.	For a submission regarding instructional practices, only minor additions to state or national learning standards are needed.	For a submission regarding instructional practices, there is ample reference to state or national learning standards.